Part VII

Line 93.a. Training Workshops and Conferences

In order to create a world-wide network of like-minded individuals that are capable of the highest levels of critical analysis in the numerous disciplines and inter-disciplinary fields in which the work of the Quantum Future Group takes place it is essential for people to meet. In meeting each other the bonds of a true network are established.

Additionally, workshops and conferences have enabled the group to expand both its core and peripheral volunteer base enabling the ground to be laid for anticipated future growth and for the establishment of nodes of activity in numerous countries throughout the world.

The establishment of organizational norms together with the achievements detailed above has enabled the group, and will enable the group in the future, to meet it principal objective stated in Part III above.

Line 102. Gross Profit from sale of inventory

Although much of the research and publications of the group are available free for anybody in the world with an internet connection, some of the web content is made available in hard copy.

Additionally, where a web-based format would not do justice to the material being presented or enable people to "have their own copy" hard copy editions of the material are sold in book form.

As previously detailed in correspondence with the IRS this has been demonstrated to be both educational, pursuant to the group purpose and not "unrelated commercial activity".
